work experience

Capture Press - Web Design and Wordpress Development

When Capture Press was ready to continue with their online publishing platform, they wanted something that could be easily updated (perhaps by the writer community itself) and something a bit edgier than its "corporate" materials. A design was struck from the idea parkour tag meets graffiti. These designs were then crafted on top of a Wordpress platform.

January 2010 – Present

Capture Press - Book Title Concept and Cover Design

Tasked with delivering a title concept and cover design for an upcoming anthology about zombies set to be released in the future by Capture Press. Came up with title and concept Necrophila: Brain-soiled Love Letters. Cover is comprised of several individual images manipulated together to give a disjointed or "undead" feel.

January 2010

Jacob Milnestein - Book Cover Design

Delievered three concepts fro Jacob Milnestein's book Love Amongst Strangers. Each to reflect the central theme of the book (a magpie) as well as London.

Winter 2009

H.H. Neville - Book Title Concept, Jacket Design and Layout

Tasked with crafting a title for an anthology for H.H. Neville's Censor's property and designed a full wrap around jacket that showed several old publications and photos that had been censored or stricken out.
